Captain David M. Boone, Civil Engineer Corps, U.S. Navy is the Commanding Officer of Naval Facilities Engineering Command Mid-Atlantic. As an integral part of the NAVFAC enterprise, NAVFAC Mid-Atlantic manages the planning, design and construction of shore facilities for the U.S. Navy from Maine to North Carolina. They provide facilities engineering, public works and environmental products and services for Supported Commanders as an integral part of the Commander Navy Region Mid-Atlantic team.

NAVFAC Mid-Atlantic has more than 3,500 civilian and military personnel who last year executed $2.5 billion in business volume, serving more than 20 facilities in nine states.

He reported as Commanding Officer in Sept. 2008 and is a Seabee Combat Warfare Officer, a Navy Diving Officer, and a Registered Professional Engineer. He is also a member of the Acquisition Professional Community, Joint Specialty Officer, and a graduate of the Naval War College and the Armed Forces Staff College.
